

Message to our customers, partners and suppliers:

Ajax Paving Industries, Inc. and Ajax Materials Corporation has been closely monitoring the communications from the Center for Disease Control, the World Health Organization, as well as federal, state and local government(s) relative to the ongoing spread of the COVID-19 virus.

Ajax Paving Industries, Inc. and Ajax Materials Corporation are essential companies. Based on our current projects supporting the public, the government deems all construction workers as "critical infrastructure workers" who are expected to continue to work on infrastructure construction projects. Ajax Paving Industries, Inc. and Ajax Materials Corporation are companies which are exempted from the prohibitions of the Executive Order. We will remain in operation to support our customers and partners to the greatest extent possible. Ajax Paving Industries, Inc. and Ajax Materials Corporation has taken numerous measures to protect our team members and keep them safe, while continuing to operate and support the public.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Christina O'Brien, Director of Human Resources for Ajax Paving Industries, Inc. and/or Ajax Materials Corporation at (248) 765-0435 or cobrien@ajaxpaving.com.

Sincerely,

Ajax Paving Industries, Inc. and Ajax Materials Corporation
